

11-28-2014

Interview with Regien Hasperhoven

Taylor Hobart
University of Wyoming

Follow this and additional works at: <http://repository.uwyo.edu/ioh>

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons

Publication Information

Hobart, Taylor, "Interview with Regien Hasperhoven" (2014). Immigrant Oral Histories. Paper 8.
<http://repository.uwyo.edu/ioh/8>

This Audio is brought to you for free and open access by the History at Wyoming Scholars Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Immigrant Oral Histories by an authorized administrator of Wyoming Scholars Repository. For more information, please contact scholcom@uwyo.edu.

Annotated Notes of Interview with Regien Hasperhoven.

- 0:00-0:26
 - Basic Information of Regien Hasperhoven
- 0:26-3:18
 - Information about Hengelo and the differences with American culture
- 3:18-4:23
 - Jobs held in the Netherlands
- 4:23-7:32
 - Immigration
- 7:32-11:00
 - Assimilation to American Culture
- 11:00-13:33
 - Healthcare in the Netherlands from 1960 to 1990
- 13:33-17:11
 - Unemployment Program in the Netherlands from 1960 to 1990
- 17:11-19:30
 - Sick leave in America vs. the Netherlands
- 19:30-20:37
 - Thoughts on Governmental benefits in General
- 20:37-21:37
 - Unemployment similarities between decades
- 21:37-23:02
 - Collapse of textile and ship building industries in late 70s/early 80s; increase in unemployment
- 23:02-27:07
 - The Volkspartij voor Vrijheid en Democratie (VVD) and the Labour Party and the Dutch economy in late 70s/early 80s
- 27:07-33:49
 - Muslim immigrants, Dutch worries, Geert Wilders, and a Dutch view of Islam
- 33:49-37:43
 - Modern economics of Holland and retirement benefits
- 37:43-40:18
 - Reasons for emigrating
- 40:18-42:07
 - Marriage
- 42:07-45:00
 - Possibilities of returning to the Netherlands
- 45:00-45:12
 - “Thank you” to Regien